

Arabic Phrase Analyser

We Are Not in the Abbasid Era nor in the Umayyad State

لسنا في العصر العباسي ولسنا في الدولة الأموية

Igor Deruga

Arabic Phrase with Full Diacritics

لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

1 English Translation

Literal: Not-we in the-era the-Abbasid and-not-we in the-state the-Umayyad
[Arabic order retained for direct mapping]

Adapted: We are not in the Abbasid era and we are not in the Umayyad state

2 Detailed Word Analysis

2.1 لَسْنَا — /lasna:/'

Translation	we are not
Root	ل-ي-س (l-j-s)
Pattern	Defective verb + pronoun suffix
Grammar	Negative verb of being, 1st person plural, with attached pronoun نَا
Examples	1. لَسْتُ مُتَأَكِّدًا — I am not sure /lastu mutaʔakki-dan/ 2. لَيْسَ هُنَاكَ مُشْكَلَةٌ — There is no problem /lajsa hunaka muʃkilatun/ 3. لَسْنَا وَحَدْنَا — We are not alone /lasna: wahdana:/'
Function	Negates nominal sentences; acts as auxiliary verb requiring predicate in accusative
Etymology	From root meaning "to not be"; unique negative copula in Arabic

Complete Conjugation of لَيْسَ

Negative Copula - Present Tense Only

Person	Form	Translation
1st person singular	لَسْتُ /lastu/	I am not
1st person plural	لَسْنَا /lasna:/	we are not
2nd person masc. sing.	لَسْتَ /lasta/	you (m.) are not
2nd person fem. sing.	لَسْتِ /lasti/	you (f.) are not
2nd person dual	لَسْتُمَا /lastuma:/	you (dual) are not
2nd person masc. plural	لَسْتُمْ /lastum/	you (m. pl.) are not
2nd person fem. plural	لَسْتُنَّ /lastunna/	you (f. pl.) are not
3rd person masc. sing.	لَيْسَ /lajsa/	he is not
3rd person fem. sing.	لَيْسَتْ /lajsat/	she is not
3rd person dual	لَيْسَا /lajsa:/	they (dual) are not
3rd person masc. plural	لَيْسُوا /lajsu:/	they (m.) are not
3rd person fem. plural	لَسْنَ /lasna/	they (f.) are not

Grammatical Properties of لَيْسَ

- Category: Defective verb (فِعْلٌ نَاقِصٌ) — incomplete verb
- Function: Negates nominal sentences only
- Tense: Has only present tense form (no past or future conjugations)
- Case government:
 - Subject (اسم ليس) — nominative case
 - Predicate (خبر ليس) — accusative case
- Sister verbs: Part of كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا (kāna and its sisters)
- Example structure: لَيْسَ الطَّالِبُ حَاضِرًا — The student is not present

- الطَّالِبُ (nominative) — subject
- حَاضِرًا (accusative) — predicate

2.2 في — /fi:/

Translation	in, at
Root	Preposition (not from trilateral root)
Pattern	Independent preposition
Grammar	Preposition indicating location (literal or metaphorical)
Examples	1. فِي الْبَيْتِ — In the house /fi: lbajti/ 2. فِي الصَّبَاحِ — In the morning /fi: sʕsʕaba:hi/ 3. فِي رَأْيِي — In my opinion /fi: raʔji:/
Function	Governs genitive case on following noun
Etymology	From Proto-Semitic *fi; Hebrew בֵּ (be-) "in"

Usage Nuances

- Literal location: فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ (in the school)
- Temporal: فِي الصَّيْفِ (in summer)
- Abstract/metaphorical: فِي الْحَقِيقَةِ (in reality)
- State/condition: فِي حَالَةٍ جَيِّدَةٍ (in good condition)
- With eras/periods: فِي الْعَصْرِ الْحَدِيثِ (in the modern era)

2.3 العَصْر — /alʕasʕri/

Translation	the era, the age, the period
Root	ع-ص-ر (ʕ-sʕ-r)
Pattern	فَعْل (faʕl)
Grammar	Masculine noun, genitive case (after preposition فِي), definite
Examples	1. العَصْرُ الذَّهَبِيُّ — The golden age /alʕasʕru ððahabi-jju/ 2. عَصْرُ النَّهْضَةِ — The Renaissance era /ʕasʕru nnahðʕati/ 3. فِي هَذَا الْعَصْرِ — In this age /fi: ha:ða: lʕasʕri/
Synonyms	زَمَن (time), عَهْد (epoch), دَهْر (age), حَقْبَة (period)
Etymology	From root meaning "to press, squeeze"; extended to mean "time period"

Declension

Case	Indefinite	Definite
Nominative	عَصْرٌ /ʕasʕrun/	العَصْرُ /alʕasʕru/
Accusative	عَصْرًا /ʕasʕran/	العَصْرَ /alʕasʕra/
Genitive	عَصْرٍ /ʕasʕrin/	العَصْرِ /alʕasʕri/

2.4 الْعَبَّاسِيُّ — /alʔabba:sijji/

Translation	the Abbasid
Root	عَبَّاس (ʔ-b-s) from proper name عَبَّاس
Pattern	الْفَعَّالِيّ (al-faʔʔa:lijj) — definite nisba adjective
Grammar	Nisba adjective, masculine singular, genitive case (agreeing with الْعَصْرِ), definite
Examples	1. الْخَلِيفَةُ الْعَبَّاسِيَّةُ — The Abbasid caliph /alxali:fatu lʔabba:sijju/ 2. الْعَصْرُ الْعَبَّاسِيُّ الْأَوَّلُ — The first Abbasid era /alʔasʔru lʔabba:sijju l-ʔawwalu/ 3. الْحَضَارَةُ الْعَبَّاسِيَّةُ — The Abbasid civilization /alhadʔa:ratu lʔabba:sijjatu/
Historical Context	Abbasid Caliphate (750-1258 CE), Islamic Golden Age, capital Baghdad
Etymology	From عَبَّاس (al-ʔAbbās), uncle of Prophet Muhammad

Declension

Case	Indefinite	Definite
Nominative	عَبَّاسِيٌّ /ʔabba:sijjun/	الْعَبَّاسِيُّ /alʔabba:sijju/
Accusative	عَبَّاسِيًّا /ʔabba:sijjan/	الْعَبَّاسِيَّ /alʔabba:sijja/
Genitive	عَبَّاسِيٍّ /ʔabba:sijjin/	الْعَبَّاسِيِّ /alʔabba:sijji/

2.5 وَ — /wa/

Translation	and
Root	Coordinating conjunction (not from triliteral root)
Pattern	Prefixed conjunction
Grammar	Coordinating conjunction connecting two clauses
Examples	1. مُحَمَّدٌ وَعَلِيٌّ — Muhammad and Ali /muhammadun wa ʿalijjun/ 2. قَرَأْتُ وَكُتِبْتُ — I read and wrote /qaraʔtu wa katabtu/ 3. الشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ — The sun and the moon /aʃʃamsu walqamaru/
Function	Connects words, phrases, or clauses; most common conjunction in Arabic
Etymology	From Proto-Semitic *wa; Hebrew וְ (ve-) "and"

Phonological Variations

- Before consonants: وَ /wa/ — وَمُحَمَّدٌ /wa muḥammad/
- Before ʔ: becomes وَ — وَالْكِتَابُ /walkita:b/
- In connected speech: may reduce to /u/ or /i/ depending on context

2.6 الدَّوْلَةُ — /ddawlati/

Translation	the state, the dynasty, the empire
Root	د-و-ل (d-w-l)
Pattern	فَعْلَةٌ (faʿlah)
Grammar	Feminine noun, genitive case (after preposition فِي), definite
Examples	1. الدَّوْلَةُ الْعُثْمَانِيَّةُ — The Ottoman state /addawlatu lʕuθma:nijjatu/ 2. رَأِيسُ الدَّوْلَةِ — Head of state /raʔi:su ddawlati/ 3. دَوْلَةُ عَرَبِيَّةٌ — An Arab state /dawlatun ʕarabij-jatun/
Synonyms	حُكُومَةٌ (government), مَمْلَكَةٌ (kingdom), سُلْطَةٌ (authority)
Etymology	From root meaning "to alternate, rotate"; extended to "ruling power"

Declension

Case	Indefinite	Definite
Nominative	دَوْلَةٌ /dawlatun/	الدَّوْلَةُ /addawlatu/
Accusative	دَوْلَةً /dawlatan/	الدَّوْلَةَ /addawlata/
Genitive	دَوْلَةٍ /dawlatin/	الدَّوْلَةِ /addawlati/

2.7 الأُمَوِيَّةُ — /l-ʔumawijjati/

Translation	the Umayyad
Root	أُمِيَّةٌ from proper name أ-م-ي
Pattern	الْفُعْلِيَّةُ (al-fuʕaliyyah) — definite feminine nisba adjective
Grammar	Nisba adjective, feminine singular, genitive case (agreeing with الدَّوْلَةُ), definite
Examples	1. اِخْلَافَةُ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ — The Umayyad Caliphate /al-xilāfatu l-ʔumawijjatu/ 2. الدَّوْلَةُ الْأُمَوِيَّةُ — The Umayyad state /addawlatu l-ʔumawijjatu/ 3. الْمَسْجِدُ الْأُمَوِيُّ — The Umayyad Mosque /al-mas-dzidu l-ʔumawijju/
Historical Context	Umayyad Caliphate (661-750 CE), first major Islamic dynasty, capital Damascus
Etymology	From أُمِيَّةٌ (Umayya), ancestor of Umayyad clan

Declension

Case	Indefinite	Definite
Nominative	أُمَوِيَّةٌ /ʔumawijjatun/	الْأُمَوِيَّةُ /al-ʔumawijjatu/
Accusative	أُمَوِيَّةً /ʔumawijjatan/	الْأُمَوِيَّةَ /al-ʔumawijjata/
Genitive	أُمَوِيَّةٍ /ʔumawijjatin/	الْأُمَوِيَّةِ /al-ʔumawijjati/

3 Phrase Analysis

Grammatical Structure:

Negative copula verb (1st pl.) + prepositional phrase (definite noun + definite adjective) + coordinating conjunction + negative copula verb (1st pl.) + prepositional phrase (definite noun + definite adjective)

Sentence Type: Two coordinated negative nominal sentences using لَيْسَ

Key Grammar Points:

- Negative copula: لَسْنَا (we are not) — defective verb negating state of being
- Parallel structure: Two identical sentence structures connected by وَ
- Prepositional predicates: Both فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ and فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ function as predicates
- Case government by لَيْسَ:
 - Subject (implicit نَحْنُ) would be nominative
 - Predicate (prepositional phrases) treated as manṣūb (accusative) position
- Definiteness: Both alternatives are fully definite (contrast with previous question phrase)
- Adjective agreement:
 - الْعَبَّاسِيُّ agrees with الْعَصْرُ (masc., sing., gen., def.)
 - الْأُمَوِيَّةُ agrees with الدَّوْلَةُ (fem., sing., gen., def.)
- Rhetorical function: Declarative denial — assertive statement rejecting anachronistic characterization
- Emphasis through repetition: Repeating لَسْنَا فِي emphasizes rejection of both alternatives

4 Syntactic Analysis

Phrase Structure Tree:

Syntactic Relationships:

1. Main structure: Two coordinated negative nominal sentences
2. Each sentence structure:
 - Negative verb: لَسْنَا (ism laysa implied: نَحْنُ)
 - Predicate: Prepositional phrase (khabar laysa)
3. Coordination: وَ connects two parallel negative statements
4. Parallel structure emphasis: Repetition of لَسْنَا فِي creates rhythmic emphasis
5. Adjective position: Both nisba adjectives follow their nouns as attributes
6. Implicit vs. explicit: Subject pronoun incorporated in verb, not stated separately

Box Diagram:

5 Similar Phrases for Practice

1. لَسْنَا فِي الْقُرُونِ الْوُسْطَى وَلَسْنَا فِي عَصْرِ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ
We are not in the Middle Ages and we are not in the era of pre-Islamic ignorance /lasna: fi: lquru:ni lwust'a: wa lasna: fi: ʕasʕri ldʒa:hillijjati/
2. لَسْنَا فِي الْخِلَافَةِ الْعُثْمَانِيَّةِ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْفَاتِمِيَّةِ
We are not in the Ottoman Caliphate and we are not in the Fatimid state /lasna: fi: lxila:fati lʕuθma:nijjati wa lasna: fi: ddawlati lfa:tʕimijjati/
3. لَسْتُ فِي الْمَاضِي وَلَسْتُ فِي الْمُسْتَقْبَلِ، أَنَا فِي الْحَاضِرِ
I am not in the past and I am not in the future, I am in the present /lastu fi: lma:dʕi: wa lastu fi: lmustaqbali, ʔana: fi: lha:dʕiri/
4. لَيْسُوا فِي عَهْدِ الْمَمَالِكِ وَلَيْسُوا فِي عَهْدِ الْأَيُّوبِيِّينَ
They are not in the Mamluk epoch and they are not in the Ayyubid epoch /lajsu: fi: ʕahdi lmama:li:ki wa lajsu: fi: ʕahdi l-ʔajju:bijji:na/
5. لَسْنَا فِي زَمَنِ الْإِسْتِعْمَارِ وَلَسْنَا فِي زَمَنِ الْعُبُودِيَّةِ
We are not in the time of colonialism and we are not in the time of slavery /lasna: fi: zamani l-istiʕma:ri wa lasna: fi: zamani lʕubu:dijjati/
6. لَسْتُ فِي بَغْدَادِ الْعَبَّاسِيَّةِ وَلَسْتُ فِي دِمَشْقِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ
You are not in Abbasid Baghdad and you are not in Umayyad Damascus /lasta fi: bayda:da lʕabba:sijjati wa lasta fi: dimaʕqa l-ʔumawijjati/

6 Levantine (Shami) Arabic Dialect

Levantine Version

مِش نَحْنَا بِالْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَمِش نَحْنَا بِالدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

Phonetic: /miʃ niħna bilʕasʕar elʕabba:si: wmiʃ niħna biddawle l-ʔumawijje/

Translation: We are not in the Abbasid era and we are not in the Umayyad state

Key Dialectal Changes:

- لَسْنَا → مِش نَحْنَا /miʃ niħna/ — Dialectal negation with explicit pronoun
- Alternative: مَا نَحْنَا /ma: niħna/ — Another dialectal negation pattern
- فِي → بِ /bi/ — Preposition shift (common in Levantine)

- العَصْر → العَصْر /elʕasʕar/ — Loss of case endings
- العَبَّاسِيَّ → العَبَّاسِي /elʕabba:si:/ — Loss of case endings
- وَلَسْنَا → وَمِش /wmiʃ/ — Shortened conjunction + negation
- الدَّوْلَة → الدَّوْلَة /eddawle/ — Dialectal pronunciation
- الْأُمَوِيَّة → الْأُمَوِيَّة /l-ʔumawijje/ — Simplified ending

6.1 Alternative Dialectal Versions

Egyptian Arabic:

إِحْنَا مِش فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِي وَمِش فِي الدَّوْلَة الْأُمَوِيَّة
/ʔehna miʃ fi lʕasʕr elʕabba:si wmiʃ fi ddawla l-ʔumawejja/

Gulf Arabic:

مَا نَحْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِي وَمَا نَحْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَة الْأُمَوِيَّة
/ma: nihna fi lʕasʕir elʕabba:si wma: nihna fi ddawla l-ʔumawejja/

Moroccan Arabic:

مَا حَنَا شْ فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِي وَلَا فِي الدَّوْلَة الْأُمَوِيَّة
/ma: hna:ʃ f lʕasʕr lʕabba:si wɔla f ddawla l-ʔumawejja/

Iraqi Arabic:

مَاكُو نَحْنَا بِالْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِي وَلَا بِالدَّوْلَة الْأُمَوِيَّة
/ma:ku nihna bilʕasʕar elʕabba:si wla biddawla l-ʔumawejja/

7 Additional Learning Notes

Cultural and Rhetorical Context

Rhetorical Function:

This phrase serves as a declarative rebuttal to the earlier question. It represents:

- Assertion of modernity: Rejecting anachronistic characterizations
- Political statement: Denying that current governance resembles medieval systems
- Progressive stance: Affirming modern identity and rejecting backward-looking critiques
- Defensive response: Countering accusations of outdated political structures

Discourse Context:

This phrase typically appears in:

1. Political speeches: Leaders defending their governance models

2. Media commentary: Journalists discussing modernization efforts
3. Academic discourse: Scholars distinguishing contemporary from historical systems
4. Public debates: Citizens asserting modern political consciousness
5. Reform discussions: Activists arguing for progressive change

Implied Continuation:

The phrase often continues with assertions about what era/system we ARE in:

- نَحْنُ فِي عَصْرِ حَدِيثٍ — We are in a modern era
- نَحْنُ فِي الْقَرْنِ الْوَاحِدِ وَالْعِشْرِينَ — We are in the 21st century
- نَحْنُ فِي عَصْرِ الدِّيمُقْرَاطِيَّةِ — We are in the era of democracy

Contrast with Question Form:

Compare this declarative with the earlier interrogative:

- Question: هَلْ نَحْنُ بِعَصْرِ عَبَّاسِيٍّ أَمْ عَصْرِ الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ؟
- Answer/Rebuttal: لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ
- The declarative is more assertive and emphatic through repetition

Historical Irony:

The phrase gains additional meaning from historical context:

- Umayyad and Abbasid dynasties represent different political models
- Both were eventually replaced by modern nation-states
- The phrase acknowledges this transition while rejecting nostalgia
- Implicitly recognizes that those systems are incompatible with modernity

7.1 Memory Tips

1. Negation Pattern: Remember لَيْسَ conjugates like a verb but only in present tense

- لَسْتُ (I am not), لَسْنَا (we are not), لَسْتَ (you are not)
- No past or future forms — use لَمْ يَكُنْ (was not) for past

2. Parallel Structure: The repetition of لَسْنَا فِي creates emphasis

- Pattern: [NEG + PREP + NOUN + ADJ] + [CONJ] + [NEG + PREP + NOUN + ADJ]

- Repeating the entire structure makes the denial stronger

3. Definiteness Change: Compare with the question:

- Question had: بَعْضُ عَبَّاسِيٍّ (indefinite — "an Abbasid era")
- Answer has: فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ (definite — "the Abbasid era")
- Definiteness adds specificity and authority to the denial

4. Preposition Switch:

- Question used بِ (in/with — more metaphorical)
- Answer uses فِي (in — more literal/locational)
- This makes the denial more concrete and grounded

5. Verb لَيْسَ Mnemonic: Think "Lay-sa" = "Lay (down) the negative" — it lays down a negative state

6. Dynasty Contrast: Remember the key difference:

- Umayyad (661-750) = Damascus = Arab aristocracy
- Abbasid (750-1258) = Baghdad = Cosmopolitan/Persian influence

7.2 Related Vocabulary Families

Negation Words:

لَيْسَ	— is not /lajsa/
لَا	— no, not /la:/
مَا	— not (verbal negation) /ma:/
لَمْ	— did not /lam/
لَنْ	— will not /lan/
غَيْرَ	— non-, not /ʔajr/
بِلَا	— without /bila:/
بِدُونِ	— without /bidu:ni/

Time/Era Words:

عَصْرَ	— era /ʕasʕr/
زَمَنَ	— time /zaman/
دَهْرَ	— age /dahr/
عَهْدَ	— epoch /ʕahd/
حَقْبَةَ	— period /hiqba/

مَرَحَلَةً	— stage /marhala/
فَتْرَةً	— period /fatra/
وَقْتًا	— time /waqt/

State/Government:

دَوْلَةً	— state /dawla/
حُكُومَةً	— government /huku:ma/
خِلَافَةً	— caliphate /xila:fa/
إِمْبَرَاطُورِيَّةً	— empire /ʔimbra:tʕu:rijja/
مَمْلَكَةً	— kingdom /mamlaka/
سُلْطَنَةً	— sultanate /sultʕana/
جُمْهُورِيَّةً	— republic /dʒumhu:rijja/
نِظَامًا	— regime /nidʕa:m/

Historical Adjectives:

قَدِيمًا	— old, ancient /qadi:m/
-----------------	-------------------------

حَدِيثٌ — modern /hadi:θ/

مَاضٍ — past /ma:dʕin/

حَاضِرٌ — present /ha:dʕir/

مُسْتَقْبَلٌ — future /mustaqbalijj/

عَتِيقٌ — antique /ʕati:q/

مُعَاصِرٌ — contemporary /muʕa:sʕir/

تَقْلِيدِيٌّ — traditional /taqli:dijj/

Conjunctions:

وَ — and /wa/

أَوْ — or /ʔaw/

أَمْ — or (questions) /ʔam/

لَكِنْ — but /la:kin/

بَلْ — rather /bal/

فَ — so, then /fa/

ثُمَّ — then /θumma/

حَتَّى — until, even /hatta:/

Prepositions:

فِي — in /fi:/

بِ — in, with /bi/

مِنْ — from /min/

إِلَى — to /ʔila:/

عَلَى — on /ʕala:/

عَنْ — about, from /ʕan/

مَعَ — with /maʕa/

لِ — for /li/

8 Grammatical Deep Dive

8.1 The Negative Copula لَيْسَ

Special Status of لَيْسَ:

لَيْسَ is unique in Arabic grammar:

- Classification: One of كَانَ وَأَخَوَاتُهَا (kāna and its sisters)
- Function: Negates nominal (equational) sentences
- Tense limitation: Only present tense (no past or future)
- Case government: Takes nominative subject and accusative predicate

Contrast with Other Negation:

Particle	Usage	Example
لَيْسَ	Nominal sentences (present)	لَسْتُ طَالِبًا (I am not a student)
لَا	Categorical negation	لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ (No god but God)
مَا	Verbal negation (past)	مَا قَرَأْتُ (I did not read)
لَمْ	Verbal negation (jussive)	لَمْ أَقْرَأْ (I did not read)
لَنْ	Future negation (subjunctive)	لَنْ أَقْرَأَ (I will not read)

Case Government Example:

لَيْسَ الطَّالِبُ حَاضِرًا

/lajsa t't'a:libu ha:d'iran/

The student is not present

- لَيْسَ — negative copula
- الطَّالِبُ — subject (ism laysa), nominative
- حَاضِرًا — predicate (khabar laysa), accusative

Sisters of كَانَ :

These verbs all govern nominative subject + accusative predicate:

- كَانَ — was, is
- أَصْبَحَ — became (morning)
- أَضْحَى — became (forenoon)
- أَمْسَى — became (evening)
- ظَلَّ — remained
- بَاتَ — spent the night
- صَارَ — became
- لَيْسَ — is not
- مَا زَالَ — still is
- مَا بَرَحَ — has not ceased
- مَا فَتِيَ — has not stopped
- مَا انفَكَ — has not separated from
- مَا دَامَ — as long as

8.2 Prepositional Predicates

Prepositional Phrases as Predicates:

In our phrase: لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ

The prepositional phrase فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ functions as the predicate (khabar).

Structure Analysis:

- Subject: Implicit نَحْنُ (we) — incorporated in لَسْنَا
- Predicate: فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ — prepositional phrase
- Status: The entire PP is treated as mansūb (accusative position)

Why Prepositional Phrases Work as Predicates:

Arabic allows PP predicates because they:

1. Provide location information about the subject
2. Complete the meaning of the sentence
3. Function semantically like adjectives or nouns

Examples of PP Predicates:

Arabic	English
الْكِتَابُ عَلَى الطَّاوِلَةِ	The book is on the table
نَحْنُ فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ	We are at school
هُوَ مِنْ مِصْرَ	He is from Egypt
الْقَلَمُ بِيَدِي	The pen is in my hand

With لَيْسَ:

Arabic	English
لَيْسَ الْكِتَابُ عَلَى الطَّاوِلَةِ	The book is not on the table
لَسْنَا فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ	We are not at school
لَيْسَ هُوَ مِنْ مِصْرَ	He is not from Egypt

8.3 Coordination and Parallel Structure

Parallel Structure in Our Phrase:

لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

Pattern Analysis:

Element 1	Conjunction	Element 2
لَسْنَا فِي X	و	لَسْنَا فِي Y

Rhetorical Effect of Repetition:

- Emphasis: Repeating لَسْنَا strengthens the denial
- Rhythm: Creates parallel cadence for memorable impact
- Completeness: Each denial stands independently
- Clarity: No ambiguity about what is being negated

Alternative: Elliptical Structure

Could be simplified to: لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

- Omits second لَسْنَا
- Uses وَلَا (and not) instead
- More concise but less emphatic
- Still grammatically correct

Coordination Patterns:

Type	Example
Full repetition	لَسْنَا... وَلَسْنَا... (most emphatic)
Partial ellipsis	لَسْنَا... وَلَا... (less emphatic)
Shared verb	لَسْنَا... أَوْ... (for alternatives)

9 Practice Exercises

9.1 Translation Practice

Translate into Arabic using لَيْسَ structure:

1. I am not in the past and I am not in the future

2. They are not in the Ottoman era and they are not in the Fatimid state
3. You (fem. sing.) are not in Damascus and you are not in Baghdad
4. We are not children and we are not ignorant

9.2 Grammatical Transformation

Transform the original phrase:

1. Change subject to 3rd person masculine plural (هُم):
2. Change to affirmative using كَانَ (past tense):
3. Use elliptical structure (omit second لَسْنَا):
4. Add temporal marker الْآنَ (now):

9.3 Case Identification

Identify the grammatical case and explain:

1. لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ
Case: _____
Reason: _____
2. لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ
Case: _____
Reason: _____
3. لَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ
Case: _____
Reason: _____

9.4 Negation Conversion

Convert these affirmative sentences to negative using لَيْسَ:

1. نَحْنُ فِي الْقَرْنِ الْعَشْرِينَ

Negative: _____

2. هُوَ طَالِبٌ

Negative: _____

3. هِيَ فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ

Negative: _____

4. أَنْتُمْ فِي بَغْدَادَ

Negative: _____

10 Answers to Practice Exercises

10.1 Translation Practice — Suggested Answers

1. I am not in the past and I am not in the future

لَسْتُ فِي الْمَاضِي وَلَسْتُ فِي الْمُسْتَقْبَلِ
/lastu fi: lma:d'i: wa lastu fi: lmustaqbali/

2. They are not in the Ottoman era and they are not in the Fatimid state

لَيْسُوا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعُثْمَانِيِّ وَلَيْسُوا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْفَاتِمِيَّةِ
/lajsu: fi: l'as'ri l'uθma:nijji wa lajsu: fi: ddawlati lfat'imijjati/

3. You (fem. sing.) are not in Damascus and you are not in Baghdad

لَسْتُ فِي دِمَشْقَ وَلَسْتُ فِي بَغْدَادَ
/lasti fi: dimaʃqa wa lasti fi: bayda:da/

4. We are not children and we are not ignorant

لَسْنَا أَطْفَالًا وَلَسْنَا جَاهِلِينَ
/lasna: ʔat'fa:lan wa lasna: dʒa:hili:na/

10.2 Grammatical Transformation — Answers

1. 3rd person masculine plural:

لَيْسُوا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَيْسُوا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ
/lajsu: fi: l'as'ri l'abba:sijji wa lajsu: fi: ddawlati l-ʔumawijjati/

They are not in the Abbasid era and they are not in the Umayyad state

2. Affirmative with كَانَ (past):

كُنَّا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَكُنَّا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

/kunna: fi: lʔasʔri lʔabba:sijji wa kunna: fi: ddawlati l-ʔumawijjati/

We were in the Abbasid era and we were in the Umayyad state

3. Elliptical structure:

لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

/lasna: fi: lʔasʔri lʔabba:sijji wa la: fi: ddawlati l-ʔumawijjati/

We are not in the Abbasid era nor in the Umayyad state

4. With temporal marker الْآن:

لَسْنَا الْآنَ فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

/lasna: l-ʔa:na fi: lʔasʔri lʔabba:sijji wa lasna: fi: ddawlati l-ʔumawijjati/

We are not now in the Abbasid era and we are not in the Umayyad state

10.3 Case Identification — Answers

1. الْعَصْرِ: Genitive (majrūr)

Reason: Genitive case because it follows the preposition فِي. All nouns after prepositions must be in the genitive case.

2. الْعَبَّاسِيِّ: Genitive (majrūr)

Reason: Genitive case because it is an adjective modifying الْعَصْرِ, and adjectives must agree with their nouns in case, gender, number, and definiteness.

3. الدَّوْلَةِ: Genitive (majrūr)

Reason: Genitive case because it follows the preposition فِي. The feminine singular genitive ending is - (kasrah).

10.4 Negation Conversion — Answers

1. Affirmative: نَحْنُ فِي الْقَرْنِ الْعِشْرِينَ

Negative: لَسْنَا فِي الْقَرْنِ الْعِشْرِينَ

/lasna: fi: lqarni lʔiʃri:na/

We are not in the twentieth century

2. Affirmative: هُوَ طَالِبٌ

Negative: لَيْسَ طَالِبًا or هُوَ طَالِبًا لَيْسَ

/lajsa huwa tʔa:liban/ or /lajsa tʔa:liban/

He is not a student

(Note: Predicate طَالِبًا becomes accusative)

3. Affirmative: هِيَ فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ
Negative: لَيْسَتْ فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ or لَيْسَتْ هِيَ فِي الْمَدْرَسَةِ
 /lajsat hija fi: lmadrasti/ or /lajsat fi: lmadrasti/
 She is not in the school

4. Affirmative: أَنْتُمْ فِي بَغْدَادَ
Negative: لَسْتُمْ فِي بَغْدَادَ
 /lastum fi: bayda:da/
 You (pl.) are not in Baghdad

11 Extended Context: Discourse Analysis

Question-Answer Dialogue

Complete Conversational Exchange:

Speaker A (Critic):

هَلْ نَحْنُ بِعَصْرِ عَبَّاسِيٍّ أَمْ عَصْرِ الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ؟

Are we in an Abbasid era or the era of the Umayyad state?

[Rhetorical question implying outdated governance]

Speaker B (Defender):

لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ

We are not in the Abbasid era and we are not in the Umayyad state

[Direct rebuttal asserting modernity]

Possible Continuation:

نَحْنُ فِي الْقَرْنِ الْوَاحِدِ وَالْعِشْرِينَ

We are in the twenty-first century

[Positive assertion of contemporary identity]

Rhetorical Analysis:

Feature	Question	Answer
Structure	Interrogative with alternatives	Declarative with parallel negations
Definiteness	Mixed (indef. + def.)	Both definite
Preposition	بِ (metaphorical)	فِي (literal)
Tone	Skeptical, accusatory	Defensive, assertive
Function	Challenge authority	Defend modernity
Implication	System is outdated	System is contemporary

Linguistic Strategies:

In the Question:

- Uses indefinite for first option (generic criticism)
- Creates false dilemma (either/or)

- Implies no modern alternative exists
- Rhetorical tone suggests answer is "yes"

In the Answer:

- Uses definite articles (specific historical periods)
- Employs parallel structure for emphasis
- Categorically rejects both alternatives
- Creates space for modern identity assertion
- More literal preposition grounds response in reality

12 Comparative Analysis: Question vs. Statement

Side-by-Side Comparison:

Feature	Question Form	Statement Form
Sentence Type	Interrogative	Declarative
Opening	هَلْ (question particle)	لَسْنَا (negative verb)
Subject	نَحْنُ (explicit)	Implicit in verb
Preposition	بِ	فِي
First Option	بِعَصْرِ عَبَّاسِيٍّ (indef.)	فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ (def.)
Connector	أَمْ (or)	وَلَسْنَا (and we are not)
Second Option	عَصْرِ الدَّوْلَةِ... (def.)	فِي الدَّوْلَةِ... (def.)
Structure	Alternative question	Parallel negations
Verb Repetition	None (elliptical)	Full (لَسْنَا...وَلَسْنَا)
Tone	Skeptical, challenging	Assertive, defensive
Function	Criticize	Refute
Expectation	Invites agreement	Demands acceptance

Grammatical Differences:

1. Question uses هَلْ + nominal sentence:

- هَلْ نَحْنُ بِعَصْرِ... — neutral questioning
- Expects yes/no or alternative answer

2. Statement uses لَيْسَ negative verb:

- لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ... — categorical negation
- Asserts negative fact, no response expected

3. Definiteness shift:

- Question: عَصْرٍ عَبَّاسِيٍّ — "an Abbasid era" (any)
- Statement: الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ — "the Abbasid era" (specific)
- Definiteness makes denial more concrete and authoritative

4. Preposition choice:

- بِ — more abstract, metaphorical ("in/with circumstances of")
- فِي — more concrete, locational ("located in")
- Shift to فِي makes denial more grounded in reality

13 Modern Political Discourse Usage

Contemporary Context:

These phrases appear frequently in modern Arab political discourse, particularly in discussions about:

1. Governance Models:

- Debates about democracy vs. authoritarianism
- Discussions of hereditary vs. elected leadership
- Critiques of dynastic political systems
- Calls for modernization and reform

2. Historical Consciousness:

- Arab societies' relationship with their past
- Tension between tradition and modernity
- Islamic heritage vs. secular governance
- National identity formation

3. Reform Movements:

- Arab Spring rhetoric (2011 +)
- Youth movements demanding change

- Intellectual debates about progress
- Civil society advocacy

Example Contexts:Political Speech:

"Critics claim we live in a medieval system, but this is false. We are not in the Abbasid era and we are not in the Umayyad state. We are building a modern nation based on contemporary principles."

Op-Ed Article:

"The question 'Are we in an Abbasid or Umayyad era?' reflects deep frustration with governance. The answer should be obvious: we are not in either. Yet the question persists because many still feel governed by antiquated systems."

Social Media Debate:

User 1: "Which medieval caliphate are we living in?"

User 2: "We're not in the Abbasid era and not in the Umayyad state. Stop the false comparison."

User 3: "Then why does power pass from father to son?"

Academic Analysis:

"While formally modern nation-states, several Arab countries exhibit governance patterns reminiscent of historical dynasties, prompting the recurring question about which era we truly inhabit."

14 Cultural Notes: Historical Memory

Why These Specific Dynasties?

The Umayyad and Abbasid periods are referenced because they:

1. Historical Significance:

- Represent the formative centuries of Islamic civilization
- Created governmental structures that lasted for centuries
- Established cultural and religious norms
- Defined Arabic as language of administration and culture

2. Collective Memory:

- Every educated Arab knows these dynasties
- Taught extensively in schools across Arab world
- Referenced in literature, poetry, media
- Part of shared cultural heritage

3. Symbolic Value:

- Umayyad = Arab aristocracy, military expansion
- Abbasid = Cultural golden age, intellectual flourishing
- Both = Pre-modern governance models

- Neither = Democratic or contemporary systems

4. Rhetorical Power:

- Instantly recognizable reference points
- Carry weight of historical authority
- Evoke specific imagery and associations
- Enable sophisticated political critique

The Nostalgia vs. Critique Tension:

Aspect	Nostalgic View	Critical View
Umayyad/Abbasid	Golden age of Islamic civilization	Authoritarian dynastic rule
Modern reference	"Return to our glorious past"	"Escape from medieval thinking"
Governance	Strong unified leadership	Undemocratic hereditary power
Culture	Authentic Islamic values	Outdated social structures
Implication	We should emulate them	We must move beyond them

The phrases in our analysis reflect the CRITICAL view, rejecting both nostalgia and the accusation of living in the past.

15 Final Summary

Key Takeaways from This Phrase:

Grammatical Structures Mastered:

- Negative copula لَيْسَ and its complete conjugation
- Use of لَيْسَ with prepositional phrase predicates
- Parallel structure with coordinating conjunctions
- Case government: nominative subject + accusative predicate (with لَيْسَ)
- Prepositional phrases functioning as predicates
- Adjective agreement in gender, number, case, and definiteness
- Difference between فِي and بِ prepositions
- Full repetition vs. elliptical coordination

Vocabulary Domains:

- Negation patterns and particles
- Historical dynasties and periods
- Political and governmental terminology
- Time and era vocabulary
- Coordinating conjunctions
- Nisba adjective usage

Cultural Knowledge:

- Umayyad and Abbasid historical context
- Modern Arab political discourse patterns
- Rhetorical use of historical references
- Tension between tradition and modernity
- Question-answer debate structures
- Historical memory in contemporary politics

Discourse Skills:

- Understanding rhetorical questions vs. declarative statements
- Recognizing parallel structure for emphasis

- Analyzing tone and implication in political language
- Comparing question and answer formulations
- Identifying defensive vs. offensive rhetorical strategies

Practical Application:

- Expressing categorical negation in Arabic
- Formulating emphatic denials
- Engaging in political and historical discussions
- Understanding contemporary Arab media discourse
- Using historical references appropriately
- Constructing parallel structures for rhetorical effect

Connection to Previous Phrase:

This declarative statement serves as a direct response to the earlier interrogative:

- Question: هَلْ نَحْنُ بِعَصْرِ عَبَّاسِيٍّ أَمْ عَصْرِ الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ؟
- Answer: لَسْنَا فِي الْعَصْرِ الْعَبَّاسِيِّ وَلَسْنَا فِي الدَّوْلَةِ الْأُمَوِيَّةِ
- Together they form a complete dialogue demonstrating question-answer patterns in Arabic political discourse